

ARLINGTON PALATINE MEET TODAY

Palatine Line Threatens Arlington; Depend Upon Backs

With the Libertyville game out of the way the Cardinals of Arlington are striving to get back into the swing of things to take a shot at the Palatine Pirates in their home coming game on the Arlington Heights field this Friday. Beyond sundry bruises, a couple of black eyes, and the loss of a few patches of skin, Arlington came out of the Libertyville game in fine fettle and will be raring to go against Palatine.

For some reason or other after the enforced postponement of the Libertyville game from Saturday to Monday, the Cardinals refused to play the game seriously and consequently weren't as "fagged out" as is usually the custom in these Arlington-Libertyville games.

Arlington will be up against another huge line this Friday when Palatine takes the field. From tackle to tackle they will probably weigh as much as Libertyville's sturdy forwards. While hardly as rangy or as fast they have so far this year proven impregnable to such thrusts as those of Camp Leyden, Zimmerman of Gurnee, Koeke of Bensenville, and Altenberg and Conn of Barrington.

In the meantime behind this forward rank DePue and Tudyman have ground out some nice gains and have been assisted by the Reuse to Philbin, and Reuse to Krambier air attack.

On the other hand, it is no secret that Arlington's attack was not functioning at its best in either the Libertyville or Bensenville melees. It is about time that the Cardinals are unleashing their power. From all indications, Palatine's forces will be put to the test of stopping the hard running of the four great Cardinal backs—Koeckling, Kohlwing, and the two Szasz.

The Arlington line has been improving with each game, witness the fact that with their backs absolutely on the goal line at Libertyville, they withstood four smashes at their line for less than a yard total before surrendering the last precious inch for that first Libertyville touchdown.

For the first time in several years Palatine looks to have a chance to win over the Cardinals and are working overtime to bolster up their chances of victory.

As a result both teams are praying for a decent football day that neither they, nor the big crowd of rooters which has shown intentions of being present Friday, will have any cause for disappointment at the result.

Wm. Busse, Jr., Retires as Active Receiver of Banks

William Busse, Jr., who has had the receiverships of both the Des Plaines State and the Barrington State Bank since their closing this week, turned over to H. E. Robertson, deputy receiver for Wm. L. O'Connell, the assets and records of the above two banks. Mr. Busse had tendered his resignation to Edw. J. Barrett, state auditor, several months ago. While it was not accepted at that time, Mr. Busse knew that sooner or later he would be relieved of his duties under the consolidation plan of the state auditor, by which he is cutting down the receivership expenses of all closed banks.

Mr. Robertson has charge of ten closed banks in the northwest section of Cook county, including Barrington State, Palatine State, Arlington Heights State, Peoples State Bank, Des Plaines State, Morton Grove State, Park Ridge State, Norwood Park Trust and Savings Bank, and two Humboldt Park banks.

Announcement appeared in these columns two weeks ago, of the retirement of local receivers from the Arlington Heights banks in favor of Mr. O'Connell, through Mr. Robertson. The "taking on" of the Des Plaines and Barrington banks, was to be expected and has now been consummated.

Mr. Busse has been asked to remain on a part time basis to handle liquidation matters with debtors at Des Plaines and Barrington. The auditor's office has found that Mr. Busse has been doing some excellent work in the liquidating work of the two institutions under his care and he has been retained to continue that work.

The liquidation of the two Arlington Heights banks was combined with offices at the Arlington Heights State Bank building two weeks ago. Announcement has now been made that the records and clerical work of liquidation will be moved very soon to the Des Plaines State Bank.

With the slowing down of collections it had only become a question of time before the receipts of these banks would not be sufficient to pay the overhead. The cutting down of the costs will mean a conservation of the assets as much as possible, for the benefit of the depositors and stockholders.

Chicagoan Victim of Auto Collision On Elmhurst Road

The intersection of Oakton street and Elmhurst road south of the Mount Prospect limits, was the scene of a serious automobile collision Sunday night, when Anthony Pusek, 4346 South Spaulding avenue, Chicago, sustained skull and rib fractures. The victim was taken to the Mount Prospect public hospital for emergency care.

AUDIT SHOWS FINANCIAL ACCTS. O. K.

Books and Cash of Village Treasurer and Collector Agree, Says Auditor

In an audit just completed by E. F. Laurin of the books and accounts of F. H. Lorenzen, Arlington Heights village treasurer, it was found that not only did the cash on hand meet the balance on the books, but there was too much cash. The excess cash is less than $50, but it is good news. In these days when so many irregularities are discovered in the accounts of treasurers, this is a relief to find one official who has been so conscientious that he has too much money to the credit of the municipality.

The audit was ordered pursuant to a new rule of the bonding companies which require an audit each year before they will write a new bond. In order to keep the auditing expense as low as possible, the audit was confined to the purpose of substantiating the balances and transactions of the treasurer and his assistant.

The audit shows the sources of the receipts from the appointment of the present officers, March, 1932 to Sept. 15, 1933. It is divided into three groups: The remaining period of 15 days following the appointment to the end of that fiscal year; the past fiscal year, May 1, 1932 to April 30, 1933 and the present fiscal year until Sept. 15.

The audit itself is too technical to be published in full, but extracts are published in this issue on page four. The total receipts for the 18 months period were $90,000. Over half of this amount were taxes, while the receipts of the water department account for $25,000.

Cash tied up in closed banks amounted to $8,570.66 of special assessment funds, which are in the Arlington Heights State Bank. The general account funds in the Peoples bank are $1,176.18; in the state bank the general fund accounts is $9,717.72. These figures are net after the payment of ten per cent dividend by the Peoples State bank and the partial guarantee payment on the part of the directors of the Arlington Heights State bank.

There are $3,000 of general village bonds past due with interest. The total general bond indebtedness is $31,000.

The auditor also made a number of recommendations for governing the treasurer's office, which have been carefully considered by the board, which met as a whole last week Wednesday, spending the entire evening going over the report in detail.

MT. PROSPECT YOUTHS IN AUTO COLLISION HERE

Willard Busse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Busse, Elmhurst road, and his companion, Jimmie Sandberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Sandberg, 313 Wapella street, narrowly escaped serious injuries Monday afternoon, when an automobile driven by the Busse youth and another machine containing six Barrington high school students entered into a football game at Bensenville figured in a collision at the intersection of Hi Lusi and Milburn streets here. Herbert Mollenkamp, driver of the Barrington car, sustained several fractured ribs and body wounds, while one of his companions, Tom Pettise, suffered scalp wounds. Both were given treatment at the Mount Prospect hospital.

Celebrate 45th Anniversary at Palatine Sunday

The 45th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Lesberg was celebrated Sunday, Oct. 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lesberg. The delicious meals and the enjoyable afternoon and evening were sponsored by the children and grandchildren. The rooms were beautifully decorated in green and gold.

The evening was spent in enjoying various sorts of music, both vocal and instrumental. The Rev. Bloomquist of the Palatine M. E. church delivered a very interesting talk at this time.

Those present were all the children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bloomquist and son, Ed Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Carnahan, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Peters of Barrington; Mr. Henry Thies and son, Frank, and Mrs. Ida Weseman.

ADVANCED OFFICERS NIGHT AT PALATINE EASTERN STAR

This evening is Advanced Officers Night at the Palatine Eastern Star with Mrs. Hazel DeBerge as worthy patron; Mrs. Mildred Sanborn as associate patron and Mrs. Florence Steinbrink, conductress. Nelson Hauff, associate patron of Arlington Heights, will serve in "bat capacity" and Mrs. Evelyn Brodway as guest of honor.

Graf Zeppelin Reaches Glenview; 13,500 Mile Trip

The Graf Zeppelin, in command of the intrepid Dr. Eckener, arrived at the Glenview airport at 7 o'clock Thursday morning, after another record breaking voyage across the Atlantic to Chicago via South America. The trip of 13,500 miles was made as an official visit to the Century of Progress.

The big ship made a perfect landing and after a stay of only 25 minutes was on its way back to Akron via Detroit. The inclement weather conditions here cut short the Graf's stay.

Besides a crew of 47, the big ship carried 24 passengers and much baggage and mail. Representatives of the German government in this country and friends of Dr. Eckener remained in Chicago and will make the trip to Akron Saturday by rail. The Graf is scheduled to leave Saturday on its return voyage to Germany.

According to Dr. Eckener, it costs approximately $300 an hour to operate the ship. When it again reaches Germany, the zeppelin will have travelled 500,000 miles during four years of service. There have been 315 trips and the Atlantic has been crossed fifty times. This ship has also travelled around the world.

Next year's schedule calls for 18 trips between Germany and South America. The practicability of lighter than air craft for commercial purposes is believed to be definitely established. Special landing facilities are being planned in this country by the German government for this mode of transportation.

Arlington Man Conciliator NRA Compliance Board

One of the workers chosen to help put the NRA through successfully is Joe Adamson, 14 Euclid street, Arlington Heights. As an employee of the Chicago Motor club, Mr. Adamson has been in close touch with the people of this area for some time, and at the request of government officials has been loaned to the Chicago NRA compliance board for a 45 day period.

His task will be that of a conciliator, hearing complaints under the NRA and clearing up of difficulties causing them. Andrew A. Bruce is chairman of the Chicago NRA compliance board. Edmond K. Hogan and L. F. Sullivan are employee representatives, Bruce MacLeish and Col. Robert G. Peck, employer representatives, Miss Edith Dolton consumer representative, and Urban A. Lavery lawyer member and secretary.

Mrs. Maybelle Attwood Wins $500 First Prize For Attractive Home

The $500 first prize in the Arthur T. McIntosh and company's attractive homes contest was won last week by Mrs. Maybelle A. Attwood of Palatine. Dr. and Mrs. Attwood live in what was formerly the McIntosh local office on South Plum Grove avenue, and all through the summer the landscaping and gardening about their home have earned admiring comments from passers by.

The contest was begun last spring, with the McIntosh company offering free flower and vegetable seeds. Anyone purchasing a home from the company was eligible to enter the contest. A first prize of $500 and other smaller prizes were offered. More than 300 entered the contest, and many more applied after the entry period was closed. Another contest will be held next year.

Palatine people remember when the Attwood home was an attractive but rather lonesome looking building on a bare lot. Now gardens, trees, a pool and bridge, and shrubbery present a tasteful and neat front yard, while well arranged flower and vegetable gardens are planted in the rear of the home.

Lutherans Observe Reformation Festivals

Lutheran churches throughout the world are conducting special services Sunday to commemorate the Reformation of Dr. Martin Luther. This is an event of tremendous historical importance, according to many thinkers, since by the heroic efforts of this man spiritual and civil tyranny received a deadly blow and the new age of freedom was ushered in. In accord with this view the famous French Catholic historian writes: "Luther was in point of fact, the restorer of liberty to the ages which followed this era. To him it is, in great measure, owing that we of today exercise the first great right of human understanding, the right to express itself freely and fully without constraint."

We cannot think, speak, write, read, for a single moment, without gratefully recalling to mind this enormous benefit of intellectual enfranchisement. The very lines I here trace to whom do I owe it that I am able to send them forth, if not to this liberator of modern thought."

Recognizing gratefully the blessings of the Reformation St. Peter Lutheran church is also conducting special services on Sunday in memory of Luther's great work. Since the benefits of these labors have extended to whole body of Protestantism, they cordially invite all who are interested, to worship with them on Sunday.

Laurin Suggests Way to Open an Arlington Bank

Cook County Herald,
Arlington Heights, Illinois
Gentlemen:

During the past year there has been much talk regarding a new bank for Arlington Heights. A going bank is sorely needed and the public realize it more each day. It appears that the new Receiver intends moving the remains of both closed banks out of town, in which event the safety deposit boxes will probably be closed to the use of the public, unless a bank or a safe deposit company is organized.

For many years the total sum deposited in both of the local banks was in excess of $1,500,000.00. It is not supposed that any where near that total would now be reached by a new bank. Yet, a new bank with new capital, 100 per cent liquid, without the partially frozen assets that are handicapping most banks today—such a new bank certainly should warrant the confidence of many, with resultant large deposits.

Arlington Heights needs a bank. Its prestige as a sound community is impaired, without a bank. During the past year many conferences were had between various business men, and each time results were thwarted by that inevitable problem of "Capital." To open a new National bank will require capital and surplus of $60,000.00—a pile of money these days.

It seems necessary therefore, to bring the problem before the community as a whole, where it really belongs. If a new bank is to be started, it will need the aid and cooperation of the whole community.

One of the most serious drawbacks has been removed. The laws regarding double liability on new issuances of national bank stock have been repealed. Any stock now issued by a National bank carries no further liability of the part of the holder.

In a conference between one of the officers of the loan department of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and a member of the Reorganization Department of the National Bank Examiners office, and the writer, a short time ago, a plan was advanced which seems feasible, and is briefly:

"The depositors of both closed banks petition the receiver to negotiate with the RFC for a loan on the assets of both banks, the proceeds of such loan to be paid as follows:

"First, a total of $30,000 to be used to purchase capital stock in a new national bank (such shares to be distributed to the depositors pro-rata to their deposits), and the balance of the loan then to be paid to depositors in cash.

"Simultaneously with such request for a loan, the national bank examiners' office to be asked to examine the situation and report on the feasibility of the plan and on the prospects of a new bank, and in the event of the approval of the national bank examiner, the RFC will without doubt make such a loan.

"The balance of the capital needed for a new bank would then be subscribed by local business men and others. In the event of a deficiency in capital subscriptions, the RFC could be asked to make up the balance, for which they would take preferred stock."

One of the rules laid down by the National Bank Examiner, is that no former officer or director of either closed bank can be an officer or director in any new local bank.

Therefore, a new bank under the above plan would be a new bank not only in capital, but also in stockholders, officers and directors. Such an institution should prosper and in turn aid the community towards better days.

This plan may seem to be placing a burden on the depositors of the closed banks. A new bank, however, will indirectly aid in the liquidation of the closed banks.

Here's hoping the community will start a "Community Bank."

Respectfully yours,
E. F. Laurin.

Division One Teachers Give Farewell Dinner To Honor N. J. Puffer

The teachers of division one gathered on Tuesday night at the Biltmore country club in a farewell dinner to the former director of education, Noble Puffer, who is now director of education in division three. More than 40 principals and teachers gathered around the beautifully decorated banquet table.

Included as guests were Otto F. Aken, county superintendent of schools and Mrs. Aken, Mr. Sheehan, the new director of education of division one, County Commissioner Homer J. Byrd, Clarence Callahan, director of education of division four, and J. H. Prost, garden and landscape expert for Cook county.

With Miss Mildred Zoellick as toastmistress, a program of speeches and responses was enjoyed by all. Miss Zoellick proved a very capable and popular toastmistress. On behalf of the teachers of division one, Mrs. Elvina Brandt presented Mr. Puffer with a fountain pen desk set.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and visiting.

RENTS BANK BLDG. TO GIVE BOX SERVICE

J. D. Flentie To Open Of- fice in Peoples Bank Bldg. Nov. 1st

Receiver to Close State Bank Building

J. D. Flentie received word this week from the office of Wm. L. O'Connell, receiver of the two local banks, and a large part of the closed banking institutions in Illinois that his application for a lease on the Peoples State Bank building, effective Nov. 1, had been accepted and that he could take possession upon that date.

Notices are being mailed to holders of safety deposit boxes in the Arlington Heights State Bank that the building would be closed December 1, after which date the boxes will not be of access to the renters.

Mr. Flentie's first purpose in renting the Peoples State Bank building is to operate the safety deposit boxes, of which there are over 900, a sufficient number, thinks Mr. Flentie, to supply the needs of the community. At the present time, Mr. Flentie has no other plans other than the operation of the boxes. In making application for the building, Mr. Flentie's purpose was to keep the building open for the convenience of the safety box renters. When the receiver announced that the liquidation headquarters of both the local banks would be moved to Des Plaines, it became necessary that some step be taken to keep the boxes available. The job of being mayor does not take all of one person's time and J. D. was not slow to see the opportunity to do a public service as well as providing himself with an office.

Mr. Flentie will keep his office open for the convenience of safety box renters during the usual banking hours also Saturday afternoons and evenings. He will be prepared Saturday to accept applications of box renters from the general public. It is understood that holders of boxes at the Arlington Heights State Bank will be given credit for unexpired rental term of such boxes when they make application for boxes in the Flentie office.

Arlington Autos Crash At Cumberland's Bumps In Saturday Downpour

An Arlington Heights girl suffered a skull fracture, and four other persons were injured Saturday when two Arlington Heights cars crashed at Cumberland's Bumps in the roadway, and slippiness due to rain were blamed for the accident. Miss Mabel Fleming, most seriously injured of those involved, is still a patient in a Des Plaines hospital.

She was a passenger in an auto driven by Herman McElhose, who suffered cuts and bruises as he and Miss Fleming were both thrown from the auto. In the other car were Mrs. Lillian Thompson, her daughter and her mother. All suffered bruises and cuts.

Miss Fleming was taken to the Des Plaines Emergency hospital, while the others injured were taken to the Northwest hospital at Des Plaines. Both autos were greatly damaged. Shattering glass from windshield and window caused a large part of the injuries.

Lutheran Bible Institute Changes from Palatine To Arlington Heights

It has been made necessary to transfer the place for the third meeting of the Walther League Bible Institute from Palatine to Arlington Heights. The class will be conducted Sunday at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium of St. Peter Lutheran church.

Continuing the subject of "Stewardship," the Rev. W. A. Setzer of Elmhurst will speak on "Stewardship and Time." The Rev. Carl Rusch will lead the discussion of the practical topic on the educational program of Walther League entitled "Preparing at Home."

The attendance and interest shown at these meetings has been excellent. A large group of young people is expected at Sunday's institute.

Why Not a New Postoffice for Arlington Heights? Other towns are getting them, why not Arlington? That is a suggestion made in the "Vox Populi" column of this paper this week by E. F. Laurin of Arlington. He suggests that the federal government need not even go to the trouble of erecting a new building, but could purchase the Peoples State bank building, and so give the banks' depositors the money to pay for the building and hasten liquidation of the bank.

Other writers in this new department of the paper discuss the question of the unemployed boys, raised in a front page editorial in this paper last week, and the relation between the spontaneous boy organization groups and the unemployed boy problem.

Big Parade Is Scheduled For Pirate-Card Tilt

Parade—2:00 p. m.
Football—Arlington vs. Palatine,
3:00 p. m.
Dance—High School Gym, 8:00 p. m.

Plans are well under way to make tomorrow a real home coming in Arlington Heights. An elaborate parade is assured with the merchants of the city giving wonderful support to the high school organizations to guarantee a large number of floats. We only hope that by Friday more of the townspeople will join in this parade.

Following the parade every one will want to hurry to the football field and witness the revival of the feud now long existing between Palatine and Arlington. There is plenty of evidence that a real battle will ensue.

The tickets are going fast for the dance and as only 200 will be sold, hurry and get yours before it is too late. Tickets are being sold only to alums and high school students. They can be purchased at Sieburgs Drug Store or at the high school. Each ticket is 25c and will admit one boy and one girl.

Pastime Hobby Now Is Business Venture

Milton F. Daniels, 723 No. Dunton street, Arlington Heights has had photography as his hobby a great many years, attaining a professional touch that has many times been utilized by his friends. During the past, however, while he was employed in insurance work, he has repeatedly turned down requests from the general public to "take pictures," but the depression hit the insurance business as well as others, and Mr. Daniels has decided to make use of his training and superior photographer equipment that he has gathered together during these years.

Mr. Daniels is letting it be known to his acquaintances that he is ready to answer calls to homes and other places for photographic work. He can also provide "sittings" in his own home.

Esther Miltzer Is Bride in Beautiful Church Ceremony

The beauty and impressive solemnity of an exclusive wedding without any spectacular features, was that of Miss Esther, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Miltzer, who was joined in marriage to Francis George Malbeuf, Saturday evening, October 21, in St. Peter's Lutheran church, at Rose Park. Paul Roeder, a cousin of the bride, reading the sacred rites.

The wedding march, Lohengrin, was played by Mr. H. C. Landeck. The bride was attended by her father, who gave her in marriage, met the bridegroom with his best man, the bride's brother, Mr. Walter Miltzer, at the altar. The matron of honor was Mrs. Vera Miltzer and the bridesmaids were Miss Madeline Jacobs and Miss Marie Malbeuf. The honorary ushers were Messrs. Karl Miltzer and William Malbeuf, the ushers infants were Mr. Albert H. Meyer and Mr. Ernest Steuber, uncle and cousin of the bride. After the bridal party were assembled at the altar, Mrs. Elsa Pretzel sang, "O Promise Me, O Promise Me."

The ceremony was so impressive, Mr. Roeder was impressively and solemnly performed. Mrs. Elsa Pretzel sang, "Savior, Follow On."

Never was there seen a more effective and appropriately carried out wedding. The bridal party formed a picture not soon to be forgotten. The bride attired in an elegant plain white satin gown with long train, which she, in all her natural beauty, truthfully adorned. To the bride, this wedding dress was enhanced in value by the fact that it was fashioned and made by the loving hands of her mother. Her long shimmering veil of tulle fell in soft folds from a pretty caught by clusters of orange blossoms. Another touch of sentiment, she carried the handkerchief which her mother carried on her marriage day. The bride's shower bouquet was of white roses, lilies of the valley and sweet peas. All this pretty fiery did not equal the natural handsome appearance of the bride, who is truly one who may be said to be a beauty. The matron of honor wore a becoming dress of turquoise blue crepe. The bridesmaids wore salmon pink crepe, only to be described as pretty blossoms, each carrying a small nosegay with which they truly harmonized.

Following the ceremonial, the wedding guests were led to the banquet hall of the church, where a generous wedding dinner was served by Dorcas Aid of the church, who are our most popular caterers, knowing so well how to impart the most appetizing flavor to their menus. The center of attractions for the table decorations was the bride's cake, one of Mrs. Malbeuf's mountains of sweetness and a tempting beauty; other cakes of pretty appearance and delicious flavor made by Miss Minna Miltzer and Mrs. A. H. Meyer, aunts of the bride, all fitted into the charming table decorations giving the appearance of a garden of flowers.

There were guests where the datey winds were well seasoned with touches of wit, set in motion by the adroit toastmaster, Mr. Wil-

BENSENVILLE BUSINESS MAN HANGS HIMSELF

Harry Geils Is Found Dead In Lumber Yard

Harry Geils, one of the partners in the Geils Coal and Lumber company at Bensenville took his own life late Wednesday night, by hanging. His body was found by his brother in the lumber shed back of the business office early Thursday morning. Mr. Geils did not return home Wednesday evening which caused anxiety for his wife on the part of his family. His wife got in touch with his brother, late in the evening and a search was made for him. He was found about 5 o'clock in the morning, having died five hours previously, it is believed.

Financial worries are believed to have upset his mental balance and to have led him to take his life. Funeral of the late Harry Geils will be held at Friends church, Bensenville at 2 p. m. Sunday. The body will remain at the Geils Funeral Home until the hour of the funeral.

ARL. HTS. BABY CLINIC TO GIVE BENEFIT DANCE

The Arlington Heights baby clinic will hold a benefit dance on November 4 at the Arlington Ball Room located at the corner of State and Higgins road, four miles south of Arlington Heights. The proceeds of this dance are to go to the support of the baby clinic. Mothers of infants in Arlington Heights have received a great deal of help through this free clinic.

Come and enjoy yourself at the harvest dance and at the same time help to give the babies a good start in life by contributing your small admission fee of 25c per person.

Give Young People an Even Break, Say Readers

UNEMPLOYED YOUTH PROBLEM

Sir: Your paper of October 20 presented to your readers a question of first importance. The problem of finding activities to fill the time of the young men and the boys who are without occupation, is urgent. Moreover, it cannot be solved by any one individual. If anything effective is to be done, cooperation at least community-wide is necessary. The Herald can well act as a clearing house for suggestions and ideas. These can be discussed, and perhaps their best features can be incorporated into a workable plan of action.

The group of boys and young men is made up of several elements. There are many who have ended their formal education with graduation from high school. They have been unable either to go on to college, to secure employment, or to return to high school for post graduate work. Others have dropped out of school in one or other way might go to work. Many of these have since become unemployed. There are also others who have received higher education of varying extent and who have either never been employed or have lost positions they once held. That any of these groups or all are without work is no reflection on their character at present. The time may come when in a few years, and the members of the older group, the problem is very real and very serious. It is equally serious to other members of the community, although they may not be aware of it. If the natural energy and enthusiasm of boys is not disciplined to proper ends, it inevitably expresses itself without discipline, and often in most undesirable ways. Moreover, among those who have passed the period of boyhood, the effects of prolonged

DINOSAURS AND UNEMPLOYED

Arlington Heights: I wonder if anyone sensed a connection between the Den of Dinosaurs and the problem of the unemployed high school graduates in your city?

The fate of the Dinosaurs left me amused but a little sad. We are told that, according to World war enlistment data, the average intelligence of our citizenry is about that of a normal 12 year old.

This means that, stripped of our experience, our masks of pretense and our self-deception, we are all of around 12 year old intelligence. Why, therefore, should we pick on our equals in intelligence, the high school boys (equals except for our experience and our pretense) because we have the power?

We organize ourselves into groups of one kind or another and take ourselves so, so seriously. We do this in response to a natural yearning for companionship with our own kind. We also name some of our organizations after animals.

So, assuming their purposes to be harmless, why suppress the poor Dinosaurs? Why stir their resentment by acting superior? They have only acted as you and I.

I asked one of the boys the purpose of the Dinosaurs. He said he didn't know. How many can answer the same question about the organizations to which they belong?

How many of our organizations keep their purpose alive enough by making them interesting so that we can remember them?

Let us encourage our boys to organize for constructive purposes and help them make their achievement interesting. Broadly speaking, existing organizations fail in ability to sustain interest.

We should not attempt to tell the boys what they want nor push our adult ideas onto them. Too many of our ideas need revision. Let the boys lead off and tell us what they want. You will be surprised at the sound sense and also the conversation among them.

This is my solution of the problem of both the unemployed graduates and the present high school boys as well.

Arthur B. Hewson.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

What is the news? We hand you here, A budget crammed full of good cheer; Weddings and suppers all set down, And a new baby came to town. With a new feature that is "some," A worthwhile food emporium There's something good and some half bad, And much chinked in to make you glad.

Golden October days are fairly bewildering in their beauty, as they bear us on toward November and winter's near approach.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis are the parents of a daughter, born in Des Plaines hospital, October 21. This little one is assured of excellent care as she has one grandmother, and two grandfathers, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Runde and Mr. Ross Davis. Two great grandmothers Mrs. Davis of Wisconsin, Mrs. Henry Fimback, and one great grandfather, Mr. Henry Fimback. Now, baby, will you be good.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ketz are the parents of a pair of twins, a boy and a girl, born in Wheeling hospital, October 19. Mrs. Ketz is former Alice Dodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dodge. Bet a cookies it didn't take our busy old coal dealer long to get to Wheeling to see his grandson and granddaughter.

Woman's club, please notice. Be sure and listen in on KYW Monday, Oct. 30, at 5 p. m., when Mrs. Hutchinson will give a fifteen minute talk on "Better Films." Be sure after hearing to write your appreciation to the KYW station.

Mr. J. P. Uselding, who has been detained at home ill for some time, returned first of this week to his employment in the city.

Mrs. A. F. Simison has come to spend the winter in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fayette Briggs and family.

Be sure to bear in mind the date, Nov. 2. The International Food Emporium, at the gym of the M. E. church. Ten cents admission that includes refreshments and entertainment.

Mrs. Louise Hahnfeldt and her family went to Mundelein Tuesday evening to help her son, Alfred, celebrate his birthday.

Mrs. Josie Sieburg accompanied her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Sieburg to Elmhurst last week Friday to attend a social party given for Mrs. Kenneth Sieburg, among her friends.

The many friends of Mrs. Olive Allison were glad to meet her at the Presbyterian supper last week Wednesday. She was leaving here the next day to pack up and vacate her summer cottage, later she planned to go to her daughter, Mrs. Dobertson in Michigan.

Don't miss the midget or Tom Thumb wedding at the Presbyterian church, the 27th.

Mr. Walter Miltzer came from Madison to attend the marriage of his sister and spend the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lauterberg entertained their card club Saturday evening in their home on South State road.

Shirley Zollner, daughter of the Henry Zollners, had the misfortune to fall and injured one of her arms while playing on the south side playgrounds at the school. "Spookie Tavern" November 3 and 4. Watch for more about it. Speaking of babies, don't forget the Tom Thumb wedding in the Presbyterian hall October 27.

In the Sunday morning service at the Presbyterian church, Dr. H. A. Kossack christened the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Bauman, Roland Edwin, also the son of Dr. C. G. and Mrs. Falkenthal, Charles George, obeying the old command to "bring up their children in the way they should go," these young parents are starting right. The Baumanns and Falkenthals are intimate friends and the marriages of both couples were conducted by Dr. Kossack.

Remember the Welfare dance November 4, for benefit of baby clinic at Shayne's ballroom. Mr. Otto Fimback and his two daughters spent last Sunday as guests of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Horcher, South State road.

Word was received here last week of the sudden death of Mrs. Porter, a sister of Mr. J. S. Williams in her home at Chicago.

Miss Verna Meyer visited her cousin at Des Plaines, Sunday. Emil Baumgarten and Mrs. L. Hahnfeldt and granddaughter, Louise, visited their former neighbors, the Runge family in Chicago Sunday.

There was a wedding last Saturday the 21st of October, when Miss Lois Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meyer, was married to Mr. Carl Exford. The newlyweds are now at home with his mother, Mrs. Gregory, in the Hagenbrink apartment.

Don't fail to see "The Dutch Detective" given by the Semper Fidelis, at St. John's church November 23 and 24.

The Paul Arnemanns experienced a delightful glow of pride when they attended the annual dog show at the Armory in Chicago, where there were two thousand dogs and 150 of the terror variety, to which their dog belongs, and lo and behold, their dog received third prize. Ain't that some?

International food sale, our first great Food Emporium November 2, at the Methodist gym. I'll be seeing you!

The Ever Ready club met last week with Mrs. M. Saar, and are now busy fashioning garments for the orphanage. Their next meeting will be with Mrs. Milligan, time to be announced later.

Mrs. G. H. Peter entertained the 500 club in her home Saturday evening last week to meet Mrs. Stetz and her friend, Mrs. Fredrickson from Everett, Washington. Mrs. Stetz was a home town girl formerly known as Tracey Lorenzen.

The E. C. Coy children had a pet dog, Pat, and last week one day the children were in school and Pat was playing on the street with Mary Moss pet dog, Brownie, when along came an auto and ran over and killed poor Pat. Brownie disappeared and finally was found blocks from home. The Coy children mourn for their pet and Brownie thinks the street is no place for dogs.

"A Spookie Tavern" November 3 and 4 in St. Peter's hall, presented by the Walther League. Mr. Louis Helm is leaving for his California home, with his son, Mr. Fred Helm and family, who make the trip in their car. We hope the weather and road conditions will be kind to Mr. Helm en route. They plan to start from here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Muller are planning to go to Albuquerque to visit their daughter, Mrs. Erb and Mrs. Muller's sister, Mrs. Strain and her aunt, Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. P. A. Whiting, with her niece and husband, leave here Friday. Mrs. Whiting to stop off for a visit with her uncle in Indiana and her niece to go to her office as librarian in New York.

Don't forget "The Tom Thumb Wedding" Friday night, the 27th. There will be no fear of bad influence affecting the little ones as there were no suits for alimony in Tom Thumb's day.

The Harvest Supper given by the Women's Aid of the Presbyterian church was a good old fashioned success. About 230 people took supper and many old time friends met in the dining hall. The table decorations furnished by Mr. John Matchin of North State road, and all the other colorful vegetable decorations. Purple egg plant, scarlet peppers and yellow pumpkins, small and large made an artistic and colorful blend. Mr. Charles Paulsen furnished the palms. The Junior Aid members were watchful, skilled waiters and the chefs in the culinary department were not to be excelled. The Harvest supper will help us endure until Thanksgiving. Mrs. Stutz and her friend, Mrs. Fredericks have gone to St. Louis to visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. B. H. Jarvis has as guest in her home, Jarvis Woods, her mother, Mrs. Palmer, from the city.

Mrs. George Peterson and Mrs. D. G. Beatty drove out to enjoy the hospitality of the Roy Dobbins farm home Tuesday this week. The Flynn-Gabes with their mother, Mrs. Crowley, plan to leave for their winter stay in Florida this week Friday. We hope the southland breezes will be kinder to them than our northland summer has been, and that their floral business will prove a greater success.

The Landeck home in East Kensington road is to be the scene of a merry Halloween party for children, Friday afternoon this week. Jack o' lanterns, black cats and witches to delight the small people. A variety of food will be on sale at the Food Emporium at the Methodist gymnasium Thursday, Nov. 2 at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fritz had as week-end guests attending the World's Fair, his mother and other relatives from Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson are to occupy the Flynn-Gabes home on East Euclid, while they are in the south this winter.

A card and dance party, and a quilt exhibit will be held in the Lutheran hall, Thursday, Nov. 2, at 2 p. m., sponsored by the Arlington Heights Ev. Lutheran Ladies' Aid. Tickets, 25 cents.

A Halloween masquerade and an Old Time Dance will be given Saturday night, October 28, at Meyer's hall, 11 S. State road, Arlington Heights. Everybody welcome. All should come dressed in a costume and join in the fun. Beautiful costume prizes will be awarded. Music will be furnished by the Dixie Hayshakers. See adv. in this paper.

Mrs. George Palmer and Mrs. George Dobbins entertained the Cleaners Circle at Mrs. Palmer's home last Wednesday. Plans were made for the International Food Emporium which will be held at the Methodist church, Nov. 2. There will be booths of food such as may be found in the different nations. There will also be a fancy work booth.

Mrs. Jerry Woodward, Mrs. Harry Day and Mrs. Frank Pratt of Addison, Michigan, have been visiting their cousin, Mrs. O. G. Barrett and attending the Fair.

It feels like fall, but it looks like spring in Joseph Wisersky's back yard. There is a pear tree in full bloom. The buds have withstood the frosts and make a picture well worth seeing.

"Gold Diggers" Comes To Arlington Theater November 7th

Two hundred of the most beautiful girls of the country were selected to appear in the various choruses and dance ensembles of the Warner Bros. picture, "Gold Diggers of 1933," which opens at the Arlington Theatre on Nov. 7, for three days.

The girls were chosen from 10,000 applicants by Busby Berkeley, noted for his creation and staging of beautiful dance specialties and who had charge of the musical numbers in the sensational "42nd Street."

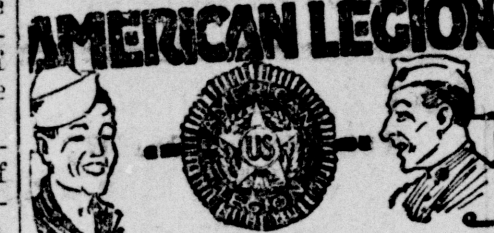

The initial selections were made in various Warner Bros. theatres throughout the country. The most promising of the candidates who presented themselves were then sent to the Warner Bros. studios in North Hollywood, where they were sorted out and eliminated until 1,000 were left.

The thousand beauties were then segregated and given screen tests and gradually eliminated until the required two hundred were picked.

Merle Guild Post

Last Monday evening our new officers were installed by Jim Scully our district commander. It was a beautiful night and a good sized crowd was on hand to witness the ceremony. The honored guest and speaker of the evening was our Department Commander, Charles Kapschall, who spoke on the service of the legion to the community, our ideals and what the state department hopes to do this coming year. "Mike Browne," our new commander, following the dictates of Mrs. Browne, made a short speech outlining his plans and with your support, comrade, he will be able to achieve them.

I won't attempt to tell you about the auxiliary's part of the program, but will let Mrs. Pecchia tell you about that in her usual charming style.

The Legion, however, wishes to thank the high school board for the use of the high school auditorium, the Lions Club orchestra for their musical support and Thon & Boettcher for loaning us the palms used in decorating the stage.

After the installation, speeches presentations of medals to our retiring commander, Bill Brockmeyer. We adjourned and gathered at the club house where refreshments were served.

The installation of officers of the Merle Guild Post, American Legion, took place in the high school auditorium Monday, October 23 at 8 p. m.

State, county and district officials were present and assisted in impressive ceremonies of installation. The retiring president, Mrs. Jeanette Pecchia served as chairman for the evening.

Mrs. Ethyl Schlupp, president of Cook county council, department of Illinois as installing official; Mrs. Mae Duckett, state membership chairman as sergeant at arms. The newly installed officers are: President, Mrs. Pauline McElhose; 1st vice president, Mrs. Ira Pearl Jones; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Helen Klock; treasurer, Mrs. Mabel Whitmore; secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Hoss; Chaplain, Mrs. Maude K. Parker; sergeant at arms, Mrs. Frieda Schaffer. Mrs. Nina Browne and Mrs. Ira Pearl Jones are color bearers for the coming year after the ceremonies.

Patricia Hoss, prettily acted as Page for Mrs. Pecchia, and assisted gracefully in distributing the floral favors. Each of the new officers were decorated with a beautiful corsage.

The retiring president was presented with a fragrant sheaf of Talisman roses, also a past president pin and a personal gift. The incoming president, Mrs. McElhose, was also recipient of a sheaf of roses to bring light and helpfulness along the path of coming duties.

Mrs. Reuben Guild, honor member, was given a select place on the platform and was lovingly presented a bouquet of roses. Mrs. Madeline O'Connor, secretary of the Cook county council, was present and added to the dignity and pleasure of the occasion. Mrs. V. Russell, 9th District, was guest of honor.

Mrs. Doris Palmer furnished the music in a charming and delightful manner. Mrs. Annabelle Dobbins Tesch sang two pleasing numbers, in her always charming voice. Miss Virginia McElhose gave two humorous readings which happily served to break the somber affect of the preceding rather heavy strain on the minds of all. Then sunshiny, happy touches of her readings were received with hearty enthusiasm.

Following the installation, the company adjourned to the Legion home, where choice refreshments were served and a delightful social evening enjoyed without the depression of high dignitaries or dignified ceremonials. They were just "folks," having a jolly good time.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Merle Guild Auxiliary will visit the Elgin State Hospital Thursday, November 5, and entertain the boys, furnish them with dessert, cigarettes, candy, etc. The unit would appreciate receiving old magazines or reading material. The group will leave in cars from the Legion Home at 10 a. m. Any other additional information wanted, call Mrs. Klock, 712.

ATTENTION FELLOWSHIP CLASS

The Fellowship Class of the Methodist church will meet at the church Tuesday, October 31, for a Halloween celebration. This will be a costume party. There will be prizes for the best costumes both singly and in couples. Plan to be present and have a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Pfingsten were married forty-nine years Wednesday, Oct. 26, and the children availed themselves of the opportunity to celebrate the event with a family gathering that evening at their home, 402 South State road. They are looking forward to next year when they will celebrate the Fiftyth anniversary.

Bowling News

BY HY. MEYER

Monday Night Bowling league, Schultz and his gang took the Arlington Elevators for three games, and as usual Schultz had all his rosters present. Kehe Motors are having the same good luck as last year, whenever they meet a team the opposing team is weak and shoot about 2500 so naturally Kehe Motors wins two out of three. Old "Snuffy" Carlson of Sterling Tydol rolled high game for the evening.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

Octobers so quickly pass. Bright autumns leaves bestrew the grass; Folks come and go from here and there. Asking "have you been to the Fair?" Yet things they mostly dwell upon. The glass man, the huge skeleton, The lofty towers, the risky skyride; The broad expanse by the lake side; The thrill of the bright color scheme; Buildings like bewildering dream, O yes, I'm going to the Fair, Since much I care to see is there, Yet folks enthrall with so much zeal, Of things that don't to me appeal.

Some of our friends who have been to see the wonderful World's Fair give the same impression they held after their first visit, many wonderful evidences shown of the progress in machinery, invention and the fields of scientific research, but

In education, the right use of acquired knowledge in moral, ethical, and spiritual progress? The answer is a dubious one. We do more seeing than thinking. This is all too evident.

We would not depreciate the marvels exhibited at this World's Fair, the advance in scientific and mechanical inventions; the use of mind in overcoming the limitations of matter. We do look with amazement on all that has been reached. The fault is in our frivolity and reckless use of all that has been revealed and given to us.

That will be about all to be said of the Fair until I've seen it with my own eyes. Seeing is believing. Meantime the miracle of autumn is upon us. No color scheme spread by man can equal it. As I sit by my window to the north and west, I see the deepest green the gorgeous crimson and scarlet and over all the glimmer of golden sunshine in the leaves of plum, maple and even the weeds and grasses of the open spaces.

O such a marvel of soft sunshiny tints blending and as it were subliming the glare of autumn's brilliant color scheme. No World's Fair can equal it, and did you see the sunset Sunday night, and the brilliance of the stars? Words of man fade beside all these.

Dr. Marv Becker's glowing description of the scenery and surroundings of her Oregon home; of her ride along the coast from Portland to Los Angeles in which she delighted in the marvelous unfolding of such a changing panorama of forests, mountains, ocean, and valley as only nature, by the hand of Nature's God, can spread. Hearing of all this, we catch our breath in wonder.

So were we delighted with Mr. Evans' fine description of the beauty and grandeur of the approach to Land of Sunshine where he and all mother and dear friends awaited them. His descriptions were beautiful and in a measure impressive, even though the trip had many unpleasant features, the desert, the hindrances, were all forgotten in the glorious scenes through which they journeyed.

Said there was no more about the Fair to be written here, yet when I gaze on the autumn landscape and find the way nature subdues even the brightest into such pleasing harmony, I recall George Aude's words about the crude colors at the Fair, when comparing different objects with the Fair of '93. He said, "We must remember children like bright colors; let them have all they want."

There may be some good old timer, Who'll poke fun at this poor rhyme. When writing of the Fair of '93, Yet we can spot some "dodderin'" Who is trying to play modern; Yet has come along the years with me. Age, I'm in no way dispising

Nor things modern criticizing, Yet folks are so funny, don't you see? Child minds many are revealing When 'tis colors most appealing, "Children must have colors" With George Aude I agree.

Surely no one need go to Chicago to find bargains when our home dealers are doing such noble stunts advertising. The Reminders old weekly rival Radio Broadcasters telling of our home town bargains—Trade at home.

Here are some definitions given by one of our learned educators. Do you accept them? "Philosophy is the science which proves that we can know nothing of the soul." "Medicine is that science which teaches us we know nothing of the body."

"Political Economy is that which teaches us that we know nothing of the laws of wealth." (Room for comments), and "theology is the critical history of those errors from which we deduce our ignorance of God."

Some one gave the definition of Political Economy as follows: "Going into politics so you can get other people's money to spend and economizing by saving your own." Just now we hear so much about economics and so many "Noble Ventures" are launched on the sea of "Hit or miss" who can philosophize? Who can theorize, or better yet, who can reach a reasonable conclusion? Maybe in the end it will be wiser to refer our problems to George Bernard Shaw, or Will Rogers, and abide by their decisions.

Out where Religion is greater than creeds, Out where a man is judged by his deeds; Out where toilers are paid for their labors, Where all the people are right good neighbors, Out where the Golden Rule still wins, That is where an ideal city begins.

Good neighbors? Do you feel a real thrill of pleasure when you see the Joneses ride by in a shiny new car? Did you feel an uplift of pleasurable emotion when your neighbor's crops turned out better than yours? Yea, even thus far, when you heard your neighbor's wife won the prize for a lovelier call for her husband than your wife could raise, did you rejoice? (Don't blame you if you did). Yes, to be glad when others prosper, even when we are needing all they get, that is being a good neighbor.

Do we exhibit a very deep delving into the mines of thought when we put in time and waste breath finding fault with the weather and changes of season? How tiresome it would be if we had summer or even spring the whole season through. Again we recall Mark Twain's "wiserack," he said "The American people talk constantly about the weather, yet never have done anything to change it." About like that, we find fault with government and public officials, yet haven't backbone to even use our votes to change it.

Stop finding fault and rejoice over the beauty nature is lavishing all about us. He who careth for our part will care for us. When the bright leaves fall, And our song birds call, Away to the south we would go.

When summer has fled, Does a feeling of dread Fold about you like heaps of snow?

When the night grows long The winds blow strong, When the evening lamps you light,

Do you think with a chill, Of the many who will Go cold and hungry tonight?

No doubt you feel the clutch of depression, yet it is best to think of these who have so much more reason to dread winter than you should have if you "Count your mercies." Government appropriations, relief funds, and the many provisions to help the needy do not reach those who "suffer in silence" deprived of those things which mean most in life to them. We heard a book lover and reader of our best magazines say that her greatest deprivation had been to give up her favorite magazines. To go without fine clothes and dainty food, was nothing compared to this.

So much turmoil and clamor attends the continuation of our public schools. Of the finances our teachers pay and all that. We are hoping nothing to destroy the real public school system and structure will follow.

Heard six public school teachers discussing the discontinuing of the junior high schools, recently. Two of them old timers long in the work of teaching, two of the middle period of teaching, and two decidedly modern. All of superior attainments and capable reasoning, and yet, this old head headed listener is not quite certain as to whether the junior high is a helpful adjunct to our public school system or not. It is still "Many men of many minds," also women who confuse our unbiased decisions.

O, you who wait to criticize, just wait a bit if you are wise. These notes are not altogether, perhaps as logical as O. O. McIntyre's column nor as O. H. L.'s semi-humorous attempts at bright paragraphs, but to tell the truth, your old Observer has a downright bad cold, if you know how to diagnose that. So in an unoriginal way critics be merciful I pray.

"I will lead them in paths they have not known. These things will we do and not forsake them." A common way for all that be; Today with gladness overflooded, Tomorrow baffling mystery.

They tell us life is so complex, In ever ranking cares that vex, Our spirits trying to decide.

The good may be growing more good, The evil blacker than of yore, Yet who of us has understood This dual spirit to explore?

Or who of us can rightly guess The workings of the inner man; Who comes to us in angel dress, And deals us falsely if he can.

Life is so full of beautiful things, Of hope and love, and all so true; While every hour its gladness brings, A kindly note for me or you.

We walk along a common road, Though near or far cometh the end; Look back to see God has bestowed On all our way His care, my friend.

The world is full of things complex, And cruel, strenuous things befall; Why should these things our souls perplex? God cares, and He is over all. Elinore Crisler Haynes.

Idleless are quite harmful. The loss to the community in character cannot be estimated.

Possibly the dollars and cents loss can be. Among items included would be property destroyed through vandalism, and increased cost of policing the town. Others not so easily estimated would be the decline in property values resulting when certain classes of people move away and others failed to come in. Also income and buying power among members of the community. These matters would seem to be the concern everyone who has financial or social interest in Arlington Heights.

That these conditions are not yet noticeably bad is a result only of the admirable character of the boys in question, and of the fact that thus far they have looked forward with hope to early employment. Undoubtedly there is hope for members of the older group, for, aside from the matter of business recovery, the passage of time makes necessary replacements among industrial and commercial ranks. Among the younger group it must be recognized that there is practically no hope for early employment. So the community is squarely up against the problem of what to do about it.

It seems to me that an organization is necessary for any effective action in this matter. Unless the boys themselves very largely controlled it, such an organization would not secure their support. Moreover, control by them would tend to promote in them the qualities of initiative and leadership. Perhaps some clever men could be induced to serve in an advisory capacity to maintain a certain necessary balance. To meet all the needs of the members this organization should work out a definite program

POST OFFICE FOR ARLINGTON

This morning's newspaper mentions the grant of thousands of dollars from the U. S. Treasury for post offices in various parts of the country. Why shouldn't we start a movement for the appropriation of some of these funds for a post office building in Arlington Heights. It would not be necessary to erect a new building.

The Arlington Heights State bank building would make an ideal post office, and its purchase would be of great help to the depositors of that building with a subsequent distribution of the purchase money to depositors would do more good than the erection of a new building, in which case only a part of the cost would remain in the community.

It is true that this building was erected for bank purposes, but it is doubtful if a new bank could for some time assume the expense of carrying and operating that building.

If this is a feasible and worthy cause, the Chamber of Commerce, the Legion and the Lions club should sponsor the idea.

of both physical and mental activities. What these activities should be could easily be determined and would be governed largely by the wishes of the members.

Many responsible persons in Arlington Heights are interested in the problem created by the unemployment of young people. Further discussion in the columns of the Herald or by a group of persons might lead to effective action. It is to be hoped that the Herald will take the lead in securing such action.

Friday, Nov. 10, seven reel, "Life On Time of Martin Luther" given by Lutheran Society at High School Auditorium, silver offering.

Saturday, Nov. 11, Armistice Dance given by Mt. Prospect American Legion at Northwest Hills Country Club.

Mystery Fire Destroys Summer Barbecue Stand

There is one less shack on the Northwest highway at Arlington Heights since Tuesday evening when fire destroyed a portable structure on the highway west of Euclid street. The building burned quickly. The fire department was soon throwing water upon the scene, but the charred remains were hardly worth saving.

Drama Club Plans Play
The Barrington dramatic club will present a three-act comedy farce, "Philip for Short" at the Catlow theater November 8 and 9.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's club met Wednesday, October 18. The president, Mrs. Eugene Heller, opening the program. The usual exercise, saluting the flag and allegiance with mention of the Red Cross canvas, a vote of 14 for and nine against the club sponsoring the canvas in our town. The dance, to be given for benefit of the baby clinic, November 4, at Shayne's ball room in charge of the Welfare committee. Ali urged to buy tickets for this worthy cause, whether you dance or not.

The speaker, Dr. Alice Conklin, was introduced by our community nurse, Miss Martha Jackson, and had the entire time allotted for program. Leaving out technicalities, she launched at once into a plain, common, sensible talk on the things we should know in avoiding the danger line in diseases, that often lead on to certain death.

Of these, she mentioned three as most fatal: Cancer, heart, and kidney troubles, diabetes, gall stone and bladder troubles. She said of cancer that one woman in eight is sooner or later the victim of the fatal disease and one man out of fourteen, also dies of the disease. She described the symptoms of its approach and warned all to seek at once surgical advice and if needed, treatment.

While speaking on a disagreeable subject, she tactfully avoided unnecessary allusion to things horrible. Her advice was valuable. Her cautions to all not to neglect having any growth or unusual symptom at once attended to. She removed in her urge the prevailing fear of surgery. A skilled surgeon herself, she knew her subject thoroughly. Her audience sincerely appreciated the privilege of listening to her sound advice and most informing treatment of her vital subject. Dr. Alice Conklin is a skilled surgeon, of long practice in Woman's and children's hospitals, Chicago.

After the lecture all were eager to meet Dr. Conklin. The entertainment committee served coffee and cakes.

The next meeting of the club will be November 1, "A Trip to Hull House." All interested are urged to be ready to leave here by car or bus, in time for lunch at the settlement, where it is hoped Miss Adams may be present.

Mrs. Anna Ehlers Passed Away Wed.

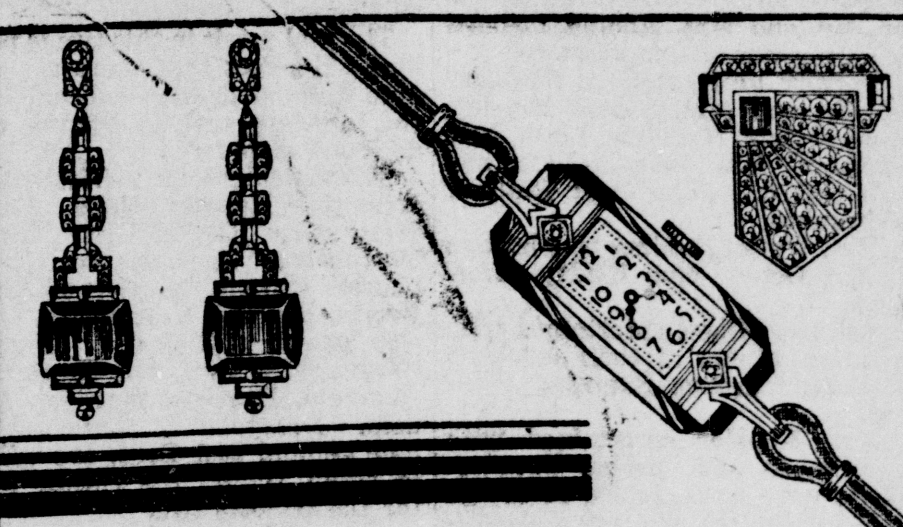

Mrs. Anna Ehlers, nee Meyer, was born in Crawford county, Iowa, April 23, 1886, and was confirmed at Arlington Heights by Rev. C. M. Noack in the St. Peter Ev. Lutheran church April 10, 1910. She was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Ehlers of Arlington Heights by the Rev. C. M. Noack in the St. Peter Ev. Lutheran church.

They always made their home in the vicinity of Arlington Heights. One child was born of this union, a son, Edwin.

She passed away Wednesday morning, Oct. 25, at 11:15 a. m. at her home, 12 N. Kennicott street. Her age was 47 years, 6 months, 2 days. Scouts Collect Paper
Barrington's Boy Scouts are earning money by collecting old newspapers and magazines. The boys receive 50 cents per 100 pounds, and the money is banked to the credit of each boy, who may draw on his fund for the purchase of scout supplies and payment of dues. Each month scout club is contributing 200 or more pounds to the troop bringing in most paper.

MOTHER, be needs plenty of light

PERHAPS his eyes won't complain for years even though he now reads under poor light. But eventually lasting damage will be done.

Be sure there is plenty of light wherever your children read or study. Be sure their books are not blurred by shadows. Be sure no glare reaches their eyes.

Notice how the lamp above is placed a little behind the chair. Its direct light shines on the book page but none of it shines in the boy's eyes. A table lamp will do just as well if the shade is large enough to spread shadow-free light on the book and low enough to keep glare away from the boy's eyes.

THE LAMP pictured above gives two kinds of light — direct light for reading — indirect reflected light for general illumination. The pleated silk shade comes in pastel colors. The base is finished in bronze. Special at $9.95

We pay the Illinois tax on the sale of this merchandise.

Reiland & Bree
Announce Sales
Of Gillette Tires

Reiland and Bree located on Waukegan road at Northbrook, one of the largest tire distributing firms on the northwest side announce a special selling of high grade Gillette tires this week. A half page announcement will be found in this issue.

This firm buys these tires in carload lots and has sold hundreds of them during the last few months to farmers and auto owners. This tire has been put thru rigid tests and in every instance has proved itself to be of superior wearing quality. Not a single Gillette tire has been found defective nor has a single customer, after having tried the Gillette, been dissatisfied.

The real merit in this tire is proven by the fact that there are now nine Reiland & Bree subdealers in the territory covered by the Padlock newspapers.

These dealers are: Wirth Bros., Arlington Heights, Niles Center, Northbrook Garage, Northbrook, Central Garage, Northbrook, Benz Service Station, Northbrook, Glenview Garage, Glenview, Pieper's Garage, Wheeling, Reliable Garage, Deerfield, Deerfield Garage, Deerfield. Each of these dealers, like Reiland and Bree, are willing to stand behind the claims made for the Gillette tire.

CARDINALS AND PIRATES TO CLASH TODAY

TEAMS BALANCED PALATINE'S LINE VS A. H. RUNNERS

Aerial Attack May Decide Result as Ancient Rivals Meet

By GERALD A. McELROY
Prior to this year Arlington-Palatine football games always found the Cardinals sporting a big advantage. This season the tide is different and the Palatine eleven which goes forth to do battle with the flashy Cardinals today is a team that will be able to hold its own and a victory for the Pirates is distinctly within the realm of possibilities.

On the basis of past performances it looks like Palatine's line has an edge on their opponents. The Pirate forward wall has outplayed all opponents this season and will have a weight advantage of 161 pounds to 156½ on the average.

Arlington is rated as having the best backfield in the conference and their edge over the Pirates is in this part of their team. Steve Szasz is probably the best all-around Arlington back. Every Arlington backfield man is a conference track winner and the Szasz brothers and Koelling are dash men, Arlington's attack is made up chiefly of wide sweeping end runs and off tackle plays which take advantage of their speed. If Palatine stops the running attack of the Cardinals they stand a better chance of winning as in DePue, the Pirates have a line plunger second to none in the league. Mangels, a new man in the Pirate backfield is fast and his return of punts in the Barrington game was a big factor.

Both teams can take to the air if their running plays fail to gain and there may be considerable passing. It is in punting that Palatine is expected to have the greatest advantage as E. Hahnfeldt has been averaging close to 40 yards on his kicks.

Arlington looked good against Libertyville, but their blocking will have to be better if they hope to do much scoring against the Pirates. The Palatine boys have the advantage of two weeks rest for this important game while Arlington played their hardest game of the year just four days ago. The weather man was indeed kind to Palatine in causing the Libertyville game to be postponed until Monday. However, Arlington has no crimples and both teams will be in good shape.

The contest has a very important bearing on the conference race as the winner will have a good chance to finish second in the conference. If Palatine wins they will finish with a 6-67 rating which is as good as any other team can possibly make. This is the last conference game for the Pirates. If Arlington wins they still must beat Leyden or Barrington to be assured of a tie for second. All this reasoning is based upon Libertyville finishing first. If they are beaten by Barrington or Warren, it will be a real upset.

Libertyville Nears Title By Stopping Arlington Line 13-0

MAC SAYS

— By —
Gerald A. McElroy

Last week we made an attempt to pick the winners in the Northwestern conference and Big Ten football games and had an even break, which is nothing to brag of. This week we are going to just give an indication of which team looks the stronger.

Barrington at Libertyville; the Wildcats move another step toward the title.

Warren at Bensenville; the Gurnee team packs too great a scoring punch in "Kenny" Zimmerman.

Palatine at Arlington; Cardinal backfield gives Gurnee team a slight edge.

Michigan at Chicago; If Ohio could not stop them how can the Maroons?

Purdue at Wisconsin; looks like another unhappy afternoon for Spear's team.

Northwestern at Ohio; Buckeye line strength gives them a one touchdown edge over Wildcats.

Iowa at Minnesota; a loss up between two very strong teams made up chiefly of sophomores. Gopher win over Pitt gives them slight edge, but must score at least two touchdowns to whip the up and coming Hawkeyes.

One For the Books

Down at Leyden last Friday Warren scored their first touchdown on an unusual play. A bad pass from center rolled way back to the 25 yard line. "Kenny" Zimmerman raced back to retrieve the ball with the whole Leyden team in pursuit and scooping it up, cut across the field and down the opposite side lines, 75 yards for a touchdown. The really unusual thing about this blunder which turned into a score is that exactly the same thing happened two years ago when Warren beat Leyden 6 to 0.

Hand Is a Great End

We saw one of the best exhibitions of end play by a high school player last Monday that we can recall. Hand of Libertyville, 175 pound veteran right end, looked to us like a whale of a player. He not only spilled the interference on every end run aimed at his position, but time after time tackled Arlington ball carriers for big losses. This fellow was never blocked out of a play. His teammate, Radloff, at the left wing is another strong player and a good pass receiver.

Wildcat Line Averages 180

Libertyville's success this season is due largely to the best line ever to represent the school. The average is 180.5 pounds and this weight represents bone and muscle and not fat. These boys are not only big but are experienced and there is not a weak spot in the seven positions. Hand, 175, and Radloff, 152 are the ends; Stickle, 165 and Snow 185, are guards; Isaacson, 185 and Kroll, 178 hold down the tackles and Carroll, 228 fills plenty of space at center.

Big Crowd Expected

The Palatine-Arlington grid contest on the Heights field today ought to be the best drawing card this week-end among conference tilts. Palatine has improved greatly since last season and is looking better every game with a line that has outplayed all comers to date. Arlington's fast backfield will always be a threat and both teams have some well executed forward pass plays. It is certain that both teams will pull all their tricks out of the bag if necessary to win this annual contest. It is the last conference game for the Pirates.

See Northwestern Play

The football squads of the Palatine and Barrington high schools, along with players from numerous other schools, saw Northwestern trim Indiana last Saturday, as guests of the two Big Ten schools. "Tug" Wilson, athletic director of Northwestern University, has followed the policy for several years of inviting high school athletes to the university games from time to time. It is a big event for the prep school boys and they learn a lot by watching the big teams in action. The boys surely appreciate the interest taken in them by the Northwestern authorities. Saturday was not the best day imaginable to sit and watch a football game, but there was plenty of action despite the wet field.

Megel Angling For Games

Megel, Palatine coach, is trying to schedule some cage games to play prior to the opening of the conference season. Attempts are being made to card some of the schools of the suburban league. Palatine expects to carry their athletic reformation from football over to basketball as there are experienced men galore awaiting the cage call.

Barrington Wins 7-0

Barrington took Bensenville last Friday 7 to 0 in an evenly played game at Barrington. In fact the writer is inclined to give Bensenville the edge on all around play as they threatened to score several times and Barrington's touchdown just before the half on a 30 yard pass over the goal line which was batted by a Bensenville player directly into the hands of Eiters of Barrington. Bensenville played their best game of the season and outgained the Bronchos.

Altenburg May Be Back

Coach Clark's star fullback, Altenburg, may be back into action for the game with Libertyville today. Altenburg was out with injuries at the time of the Palatine game and played very little in the Bensenville battle. His return to regular duty will add considerably to the Broncho running attack. Altenburg is a fine passer, a good punter and is a power on defense. Barrington will need their best to hold Martins' Wildcats in check.

Short Stops Them

Barrington has a 165 pound tackle named Short who seems to have a knack for cutting short the ball carrying jaunts of all the backs who come his way. We have watched this chunky boy play in four out of five of Barrington's games to date and we rate him one of the best in the conference and the best lineman on Coach Clark's squad. Workman at center is another consistently good Barrington player.

First Hunting Victim

First victim of the fall hunting season in Lake county was Frank Spanek, 18, of Chicago, who died at a Waukegan hospital October 18 of gunshot wounds received earlier in the day while hunting at Lake Marie near Antioch. Other accidents attending the opening of the duck hunting season in the county included the loss of a foot by one man, who was at Bang's lake near Wauconda, another man was shot in the leg, and several struck by stray shot.

By GERALD A. McELROY

Libertyville's powerful grid team rolled on toward another conference football title by bowling over a fast Arlington eleven 13 to 0 in a homecoming game on the Wildcat field, Monday. The game had been postponed because of wet weather Saturday. The Wildcats displayed plenty of class, but met the stiffest opposition of the season in the scrappy Cardinals.

The first half was featured by long runs on the part of Duddles of Libertyville and Koelling of Arlington and some brilliant forward passing by both teams, yet only one touchdown was scored. Duddles went over from the 1 yard line after forward passes had taken the ball almost to the Cardinal goal. Kroll kicked the extra point. Libertyville made nine and Arlington four first downs as the teams opened up with their best offensive plays in the first half. Both teams met with greatest success on cut back plays off the tackles.

A 55 yard run by Slusser in the third period accounted for the second and Libertyville score. Both Duddles and Slusser are wonderful open field runners. Duddles is the best back to perform in the Northwestern conference in years. The Wildcat line is heavy and fast with Hand at end and Snow at guard, two of the best.

The second half was a defensive battle with both teams doing considerable punting but neither making much headway on running plays. Steve Szasz looked best in the Arlington backfield while Klehm at guard looked good in the line. Arlington would have scored in the first period if the interference had shown better blocking in two instances on end runs.

First Quarter

Arlington kicked off to Libertyville on the 22 yard line. On the first play Duddles passed to Fenwick for 28 yards. Duddles side stepped his way through the Arlington right tackle position for 22 yards. Duddles hit the same spot for 20 yards to the 8 yard line, but a 15 yard penalty nullified the play. Arlington held and took the ball on downs.

Koelling circled left end for 8 yards and S. Szasz made 10 first downs. Koelling cut back through left tackle for 30 yards to the Libertyville 30 yard line. After an incomplete pass Arlington completed the second attempt for 12 yards. An end around play lost 10 yards and another pass was incomplete. Koelling punted out on the 21 yard line. After an exchange of punts Libertyville took the ball on their own 45 yard line and on a 30 yard pass from Duddles to Worthen and a 25 yard off tackle drive by Duddles carried the ball to the Arlington 10 yard line as the quarter ended. Score: Libertyville, 0; Arlington, 0.

Second Quarter

Arlington presented a strong defense and after four plays took the ball on their own 20 yard line following an incomplete pass over the goal line. Steve Szasz prevented a touchdown by wonderful defensive work on the pass into the end zone. Steve Szasz chalked up 22 yards on a wide sweep around left end, but succeeding plays lost ground and Arlington punted. Libertyville punted back and Arlington lost 15 yards on three plays and punted. Duddles returned 35 yards to the Arlington 45 yard line. A line smash for 4 yards was followed by passes for 10 and 18 yards respectively. Three line smashes made it first down on the 2 yard line. Duddles scored the extra point from placement.

Soon after the kick off Libertyville recovered an Arlington fumble on the Cardinal 32 yard line and had advanced inside the 20 yard line as the half ended. Score: Libertyville, 7; Arlington, 0.

Third Quarter

Libertyville kicked to Arlington's 30 yard line and after several exchanges of punts, Duddles ran one back 35 yards to the Arlington 40 yard line. (Neither team seemed able to make yardage at the start of the period.) After a 12 yard gain and a 15 yard penalty, Arlington recovered a fumble on their own 39 yard line. Arlington started out well with a 11 yard pass and a 9 yard gain by S. Szasz off tackle, but the Wildcats held and blocked Koelling's punt on the Libertyville 45 yard line.

Slusser hit through Arlington's left tackle and reversed his field 55 yards for a touchdown on the first play. Kroll's kick for extra point was wide. After the kick off Arlington had the ball on their own 41 yard line at the end of the quarter. Score: Libertyville, 13; Arlington, 0.

Fourth Quarter

Arlington failed to make downs and punted to the Libertyville's 32 yard line. Short gains through the line couple with a 5 yard Arlington penalty enabled Libertyville to register two successive first downs. Duddles' punt was downed on Arlington 11 yard line, after another exchange of punts Arlington elected to pass instead of punt on fourth down and lost the ball on their own 48 yard line. A 15 yard penalty prevented Libertyville from making downs. After Libertyville punted it was Arlington's ball on their own 35 yard line, but a pass was intercepted and Libertyville made an 8 yard gain as the game ended. Both teams had numerous substitutes in the contest in the last period. Score: Libertyville, 13; Arlington, 0.

Summary

Touchdowns: Duddles and Slusser.

Point after touchdown: Kroll

BUSINESS MEN'S LEAGUE

Megel's Giants took a firm hold on first position Monday night when they took three straight games from Schmidt's cubs. The result was due to consistent high scores by every member of the leading team rather than to individual stars. The team took honors for high team total for the evening with 2603, and also in their last game chalked up the evening's highest team game, 894.

F. Blohm of the Cubs won the evening's plaudits for high individual three game total when he tally showed 599. He also took the ribbon in his pair of alleys for high individual game when he bowled 243 in his second frame.

In the other pair of alleys where Russell's Jewelers were battling Schoppe's Pirates C. Taylor's first game of 214 took the high individual game ribbon for the night, and helped his team to win the first two games, dropping the last. This team seems finally to have gotten started, since its previous record was one win to eight losses.

DANCE EVENT SATURDAY TO ATTRACT MANY

Costume Affair of Imp. Assn. to be Held In Club House

Advance reports on ticket sales indicate that Mount Prospect dance lovers ala costume are displaying unusual interest in the Annual Costume Dance to be held Saturday evening, October 28th, at the Northwest Hills Country Club under the direction of the Mount Prospect Improvement Association. The committee has left nothing undone to prepare an evening of genuine entertainment. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Carl's Harmony Kings will furnish the music.

Announcement of the committee in charge reveals that tickets may still be obtained from players who participated in the Soft Ball League. Tickets for the event will also be available at the scene of the dance on Saturday evening.

Mascouten Camp Fire Girls
Last Thursday evening the Mascouten Camp Fire Girls held their Council Fire. Five new members were welcomed in the group with prospects for a few more.

June Wille was given the rank of Woodgatherer; a rank achieved only after hard work.

Jane Thorson gave a talk on symbolism which proved a great help to the new members. After the meeting we discussed our Halloween party. This will take place this week Thursday at the home of Bernice and Louise Benic. Please come promptly at 7:30 o'clock. We want all members and invited guests to come in costume. Let us make this the best party we've yet given.

Richmond Bank To Open
According to an announcement made last week the Richmond, Ill. State bank, closed since the national bank moratorium, was to open for business Saturday.

St Paul's Luth. Church

The annual Reformation Festival will be celebrated in a service next Sunday, beginning at 10 o'clock. The children of the Christian Day School will present Lutheran Reformation history in word and song. The Bible class meets Thursday evening at 8 at the school. The last meeting showed a fine increase in attendance and we hope that many more will avail themselves of the opportunity to study the word of God.

The Young People's Society, will cavort at a Halloween party Oct. 30.

A committee is selecting a play and cast to present an evening's entertainment before the close of the year.

The A. L. L. will meet on Friday evening at 8 to again take up its planning and work in the interest of the Christian Day school.

Community Church

Sunday, October 29:
Sunday school, 10:00 a. m.

Young Peoples' meeting, 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, November 1.
Women's Circle meeting at home of Mrs. Angell, WaPella avenue, at 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Baldwin, assisting hostess.

RAND ROAD SPIRITUALIST CHURCH

Rand Road Spiritualist church, O. O. F. S., held its regular Friday evening services at residence of Rev. Dr. Carl H. Lyngne on Rand road, Oct. 20. Notwithstanding the rainy weather, meeting was well attended.

Mrs. C. E. Dietrich conducted the services, and took his text from "Healings of Jesus Christ." He illustrated the work of Jesus in a most interesting manner.

Mrs. Louella Walt, of Palatine, Ill., was in charge of the musical program.

At conclusion of meeting, all were given spirited messages by Mr. Dietrich, who also gave quite a number of spiritual healing treatments.

The meetings are very interesting in the way of spiritual thought and food. All are welcome. Come and hear these lectures. You will enjoy them.

Choir practice each Thursday evening at 8.

A Tom Thumb wedding will be presented by the Ladies Aid society Friday night at 7:30 in the parish house.

Sunday, Oct. 29, reformation Sunday will be observed. The sermon topic will be Protestantism in Europe. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and worship with us.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

W. L. Whipple, Minister
10 a. m., Sunday Bible school, Harvey Daggett, superintendent.
Public worship at 11 a. m. Theme: "The Charger."

The official board meeting on Friday evening of this week in the parlors. A full attendance is hoped for.

The International Food Emporium conducted by the Gleaner's Circle in the gymnasium on Nov. 2, will be an event of interest both in drama and refreshments. Remember the place and the date, the afternoon of Nov. 2; the church is the place.

It is expected that Mr. Theodore Militzer will begin his work with the choir with the first of November. Attention singers, be ready to start with the first week of training.

The Mothers' club will meet Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, at 8 o'clock in the church parlors. Mr. E. D. Whitmore, superintendent of the public school, will speak on the topic, "A Few Things About Our Children."

An International Food Emporium will be held in the gymnasium Thursday, Nov. 2, at 2 o'clock.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Sunday Services
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.
German service, 9:30 a. m.
English confession, 10:40 a. m.
English Communion, 11 a. m.

Church Notes
The Lords' Supper will be observed in the English service Sunday. Registration for this communion Friday afternoon and evening at the pastor's home.

Both services Sunday will commemorate the Reformation of Martin Luther. Oct. 31 is the historical birthday of the Lutheran church, for on that date in 1517 Luther first dared to oppose the established church on a matter of Bible principle, by the nailing of his 95 theses to the door of the Wittenberg Cathedral. Rev. Fricke will take for his Reformation subject: "Our Heritage."

Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., the pupils of the day school will present a Reformation program under the direction of their teachers. An outstanding feature will be the two part singing of the children's choruses. The program will be given in the church auditorium.

Monday at 8 p. m., the Senior Bible class meets to complete its study of the signs of the last times. All are welcome.

Thursday, 7:30 p. m., Junior Bible class, and at 8 p. m. the rehearsal of the choir.

ST. JOHN'S EV. CHURCH

Sunday, Oct. 29, we celebrate our annual mission festival. Sunday School begins at ten o'clock. At eleven o'clock there will be a German mission service. We expect the Rev. Max Stummel of Hinsdale to preach the sermon.

In the evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, there will be an English mission service. Rev. George P. Ellerbrake of Harvey, Ill., will be the speaker. A special offering for home and foreign mission will be received in Sunday school and in both the German and English services.

During the afternoon next Sunday beginning at 2:30 o'clock, there will be a Union Reformation festival service at Eden church, 5049 the Gunnison street, Chicago. The pastor of St. John's church is requested to be the speaker. All are cordially invited to attend this as well as our own services.

Sunday, Nov. 5, we shall have an English Reformation service in our own church at eleven o'clock. Complying with the request of the President General we shall receive a special offering in that service for the benefit of the Evangelical Synod.

"Probation After Death" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 22.

The Golden Text was, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them" (Rev. 14:13).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and he himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (Rev. 21:3, 4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Life is the origin and ultimate of man, never attainable through death, but gained by walking in the path way of Truth both before and after that which is called death" (p. 487).

THEATRE NEWS

"Stage Mother" Is McVicker's Picture

The secret of many a child's success on the stage is revealed in "Stage Mother," drama of theatrical life recently filmed, now playing at McVicker's theater.

Adapted from an original story by Bradford Ropes, author of "42nd Street," the picture deals with a little known side of the theater—the intense ambition that causes "stage mothers" to drive their children to success. The heartbreaks and laughs that are encountered by the youngsters being "herded" on their way is brought vividly to the screen. Alice Brady scores even a greater triumph than in "When Ladies Meet" in her portrayal as the ambitious mother who will stop at nothing to further the career of her daughter. She is sensational pathos and comedy alike. Maureen O'Sullivan has the best role of her screen career to date and puts every effort into an outstanding performance.

"Saturday's Millions," Football Drama Is Now At the Roosevelt

Is football "just another racket?" Is a college gridiron star's great popularity solely the result of his prowess as a player?

"Yes!" answered Robert Young in his character of Jim Fowler in the stirring football drama "Saturday's Millions," now at the Roosevelt Theater. Embittered by the thought he lost the enthusiasm of his earlier years in school, he proceeded to make a business of the game. He bet heavily on the result of the games, sold his own student tickets at high prices, neglected his own training, "let down" the team and the college, and excited the contemptuous rage of his sweetheart.

But he was vastly surprised by events which transpired after the final game of his school career, and came to realize the true meaning of "good sportsmanship."

The story of "Saturday's Millions," which features, along with Young, Leila Hyams, Johnny Mack Brown, Andy Devine, Mary Carlisle and Lucille Lund, the newly crowned "All American girl" from Northwestern University.

Mae West in Pix 4th Week at Oriental

Mae West may not have discovered curves—but she certainly has uncovered them! As a result, Miss West's latest picture, "I'm No Angel," continues to draw the movie fans to the doors of the Oriental Theatre for the fourth consecutive week. Gone are the narrow hips of yesterday, to give way to the much more pleasing roundness of the hour-glass figure. It is pleasant to think that women are real women once more because of the influence of this curvaceous star. And with the changing mode in figures comes a complete change in the style of women's dresses.

Supporting Miss West in her role of tamer of men and lions, is that tall, dark and handsome lover of "She Done Him Wrong"—Cary Grant.

Re "Bowery" Film No wat United Artists

George Raft, once a bantam-weight, fought the leading clubs of New York without particular success. In twenty-five bouts he was knocked out seven times, and after his last bout he quit the game to avoid permanent mutilation.

However in a scene for "The Bowery," now at the United Artists Theater, he had to take some terrific punishment under the direction of Raoul Walsh.

George Raft as Steve Brodie and Wallace Beery as Chuck Connors are rivals for the leadership of the Bowery. Their enmity culminates in a fight to the finish. Being a story of the days of John L. Sullivan, the fight is bare-knuckles. Walsh is a director who doesn't believe in pulling his punches, having been a professional pugilist himself in his early youth. So it is reported there was some lively scrapping in "The Bowery."

Sally Rand Returns For Week at Chicago; Philo Vance on Screen

In response to thousands of requests received during the past two weeks, the Chicago Theater announces that Sally Rand, daring fan dancer, will return to that theater for a limited engagement of one week. The date is Friday, Oct. 27. Sally stirred up quite a fuss during her nine week sojourn at the Chicago and the World's Fair, but she was not a bit phased by the barrage of criticism that was directed her way by staid reformers who called her dance "immoral and indecent." Sally believed that her fan dance was purely artistic, and was nothing to shock the finer senses of the public proper. During her stay here, the Chicago played to the largest crowds in its history, but there were still many who were unable to get into the densely populated Chicago. As a result there were thousands of requests for her return from the Paramount Theater in New York where she broke all existing records for attendance and receipts. Then came the subsequent booking of the blonde fan dancer for one week only, the length of the booking necessarily being restricted because of Miss Rand's expected arrival soon in Hollywood to make a picture.

BUILDERS OF STABILITY

George E. Blaumeuser

Village President, Niles Center

One of the names looming large in public life in our surrounding area, is that of George E. Blaumeuser, of the Niles Center Coal Co., who is President of the Village of Niles Center. He has a notable record as a public official, is well known to political leaders and the rank and file where his activities keep him ever before the public. He is a friend of the people, regardless of partisanship, won by distinguished advocacy of their rights, in his every action. A canvass of the community would show that many of the political leaders as well as the voters in general would stand behind President

Blaumeuser in any fight he might care to wage; for they have all been watching him in his present office and they know full well that he studies public questions carefully and closely and that his mind is keyed to the responsibility he owes the people who placed him where he is.

GEORGE KINDER

Mayor of Des Plaines

Des Plaines is famed for the sons that have served the city well, regardless of personal loss or gain. George Kinder, mayor of Des Plaines, is one of the most representative officials who are present among us to receive a little praise that is due him. Every step of his career to prominence has come by his own, hard-earned efforts and not as the result of any "pull."

After attaining to an office he straightway set about to make the most of that office. Not in the sense of personal gain or aggrandizement but he made the most of it for the interests of the people. That he has succeeded in his goal is well exemplified in the success that has attended his efforts and the high esteem and confidence of the people he has acquired.

Herbert A. Dilg

Village President, Morton Grove

Being the chief executive of a municipality like Morton Grove, is no sinecure. It requires a constructive trend of mind not every one possesses. Mr. Dilg takes his work seriously and feels that reward of seeing Morton Grove grow in population and importance is reward all sufficient. Herbert A. Dilg has come to the front in political life and municipal progress because of his level head, which he knows how to use without losing it. His fulfillment of the arduous duties of the office has well proved his fitness, showing a manner of doing things thoroughly and never by halves, a thoroughness that is characteristic of this able executive. His uniformly square deal habit has made him a leader. Mr. Dilg has not arrived at the highest pinnacle within the reach of his abilities, nor has he obtained the full reward of his deserts. But he bides his time. He is a true example of loyal adherence to his friends. Meanwhile the seething and surging currents of politics are never at rest, although they appear remarkably calm on the surface. But the man who is true to his principles and his friends never need fear.

ANDREW SCHMITZ

Justice of the Peace, Niles Center

Holding public office is a peculiar position. So often one may be perfectly sincere and honest and meet only with criticism. Then again one may use the office for ulterior motive and be considered a star in the political firmament. But today the people are becoming better educated to the possibilities of mal-administration and they are more careful and watchful than of yesteryears. A refreshing example, however, who has always lived along lines of doing service to his fellowmen and who has, by virtue of their respect been placed in public office, is Andrew Schmitz of Niles Center, who holds the office of Justice of the Peace. Regardless of partisanship he administers his duties in a manner that shows that kind of results that elicits the admiration of all concerned.

Ted Groark's able administration as chief of this department has elicited the highest praise from both citizenry and city officials and in fact, some of Chief Groark's original and efficient innovations have been emulated by other municipalities. Chief Groark has spent years in the realms of law and order and he is unbending in punishing those who would infringe on the laws of society. However he is a man of genial nature, always thoughtful of the comfort and rights of his force of men who know that their chief never turns a deaf ear to any reasonable request they may make for some personal concession, or some suggestion that may have as its purpose the betterment of the department. The manner in which his men have been protecting the citizenry reflects personal honor upon Chief Groark and the mastery manner in which he has trained these men and inspired them with confidence and cooperative good fellowship.

Walter G. Herbster

Justice of the Peace, Tessville

Walter G. Herbster is holding the office of Justice of the Peace in a manner that has won the respect of all. Mr. Herbster is one of those determined public officials who will fight to the finish when the cause is right. He dominates but never domineers. He is too big for that—big in mind, strength of character and big in heart. Like many other leaders, he started at the bottom and climbed up by his own, unaided efforts. Mr. Herbster's years in public life, is four years the Mayor of Tessville, six years a trustee and also a member of the Crawford

Park district. By hard work and rubbing elbows with his fellowmen, he understands the needs of his people and never hesitates to roll up his sleeves and give them what they want and need. He has always held a keen interest in civic betterment which naturally took him into politics. The people demand reverence for the law and principle. Such a man is well worthy of a place in our publication and we are happy to thus comment on Walter G. Herbster of Tessville Justice of the Peace.

MAX FINKE

Trustee, Village of Morton Grove

To hold the office of Trustee in a place like Morton Grove and still maintain the friendship of the entire community, is indeed an achievement and reflects highly on the character and ability of the man. Such is the case with Max Finke, a trustee and chairman of the water works, street lighting and finance committees of Morton Grove. There is a man who takes his duties seriously and who is never satisfied until he has thoroughly taken care of the most minute detail of every matter that comes before him. Fair minded and just in his every action, Trustee Finke always considers every side of a case and treats one and all alike on their respective merits. Max Finke has always shown the right kind of spirit in being eager to work for any movement having for its purpose the progress of his community. Thus he is the kind of man who well merits a place in this column.

PERCY E. HARMS

Police Magistrate, Niles Center

It is strange what methods are sometimes adopted to gain public office. Beating of cymbals and drums and setting off pyrotechnical displays plus soap box oratory and all that sort of thing are a few of the technicalities. But if we are honest, we will admit those things are examples of several decades ago. Nevertheless there are many who still believe they exist today. As a matter of fact, many of our most important offices are being filled with men who contrary to the old idea of using an office for ulterior motives, are men who are actually losing financially by filling these offices. That sounds strange, but it is true nevertheless. Take for example Percy E. Harms of Niles Center who so ably holds the office of police magistrate. Mr. Harms is the type of man who would never be satisfied if he were not aiding in the progress and the advancement of Niles Center.

To sit in judgment of his fellowmen, in an office which demands rare powers of discernment and a full understanding of the weakness and foibles of human nature. Those sterling qualities are not often observed in such conspicuous manner as in Judge A. L. Sengstock. His reputation for opinions that are extremely just and fair, has made him popular throughout the entire area. This splendid faculty of rendering impartial decisions has been appreciably recognized by the public, bench and bar alike. Nothing could attest to the confidence held in Mr. Sengstock as does his own record which is outstanding in brilliant administration and a knowledge of law that is almost encyclopedic.

RALPH H. FJELLMAN

Justice of the Peace, Town of Niles

Ralph H. Fjellman is one of the leading figures in Town of Niles' public life today, long prominent as a Justice of the Peace. His career has been one of significance to the welfare and advance of the people, and in his present position of honor and trust he commands the esteem and admiration of the profession with which he is associated, and of the people.

Sitting in review upon human action is a duty that calls for fine powers of discrimination requiring of the judge on the bench that he be able to read human nature, to stand in the other man's shoes, and only with such adaptability may a justice be said to possess the qualities necessary to success. These attributes in abundance are part of the equipment of Ralph H. Fjellman of Niles, whose broad sympathies and dependable judgment have made his name widely known.

FRANK L. TUTTLE

Attorney at Law, Justice of the Peace, Des Plaines

The idea that the goal of public office is personal gain and aggrandizement, is one that has long since been exploded. Most of the men holding important office today are doing so by virtue of the fact that they have been public spirited citizens and have proved their success in their personal ventures, then, desiring to unselfishly aid their community, they have entered public life. In most cases they have been almost forced to take their offices by common desire of their fellow citizens. For example, Frank L. Tuttle, who is so ably acquitting himself of his public official duties, might be using his talents to much better personal advantage, were he to gauge the matter in personal gain; but he is of that type who performs yeoman service to the community, rather than personal advantage or gain.

A. L. SENGSTOCK

Attorney at Law, Justice of the Peace, Des Plaines

To sit in judgment of his fellowmen, in an office which demands rare powers of discernment and a full understanding of the weakness and foibles of human nature. Those sterling qualities are not often observed in such conspicuous manner as in Judge A. L. Sengstock. His reputation for opinions that are extremely just and fair, has made him popular throughout the entire area. This splendid faculty of rendering impartial decisions has been appreciably recognized by the public, bench and bar alike. Nothing could attest to the confidence held in Mr. Sengstock as does his own record which is outstanding in brilliant administration and a knowledge of law that is almost encyclopedic.

MACK D. FALKNOR

Police Magistrate, Morton Grove

When Mack D. Falknor took over the office of Police Magistrate in Morton Grove, he took an inventory of conditions and made necessary changes. Instead of being criticized, as is so often the case when one seems to do anything revolutionary, he had made friends wherever his duties carried him. He had a genial manner of smiling and explaining the situation in hand in a brief, but well chosen words, and the man who had come to him with a political axe to grind and who had not gotten what he had come for, felt satisfied and friendly. Mr. Falknor always has known what he is doing and that it was right—and he has always been right, too. That, of course, made it easier to explain matters, for his words were always founded on fact and good judgment.

ROBERT C. MCGREGOR

Assessor of Maine Township

Real efficiency and modern methods find their greatest outlets in the conduct of an office having to deal with the efforts of experts, and in no department of civic government is this more apparent than in the office of the Maine Township Assessor. When a department so manages its affairs as to escape criticism yet render unto the citizenship the rightful measure of responsibility for the upkeep of the public machinery, it may well be said to accomplish its purpose as an important cog in government machinery. Robert C. McGregor of Park Ridge is Assessor of Maine Township and he has during the time occupied this post, demonstrated his fitness for the arduous duties of the office.
